

More than 30 people volunteered to plant 300 seedlings in the littoral rainforest at Lakes Tyers Beach West on Sunday in a National Tree Day initiative organised by the Lakes Entrance Community Landcare Group. K1045-3215

Hank Van Leeuwen planting a range of seedlings indigenous to the rainforest. K1045-3218

Leagh Davies, of Lake Entrance Community Landcare Group, organised some guards to protect the seedlings. K1045-3216

The landcare group's David Congalton with Tom Crook, from the East Gippsland Rainforest Conservation Management Network. K1045-3212